Patent Standard Lithographic Padlock Card Assortments

Consisting of one dozen locks each, mounted on heavy card-board; the keys arranged so they can be unhooked, and used to remove or to replace locks, which are secured to the board by metal staples.

Each lock covers its own picture. The picture identifies the lock, and after the lock has been sold, the card still retains its complete appearance.

Each card has an eyelet by which it may be hung up, and also a wire easel by which it may stand upon the counter, or in a show window.

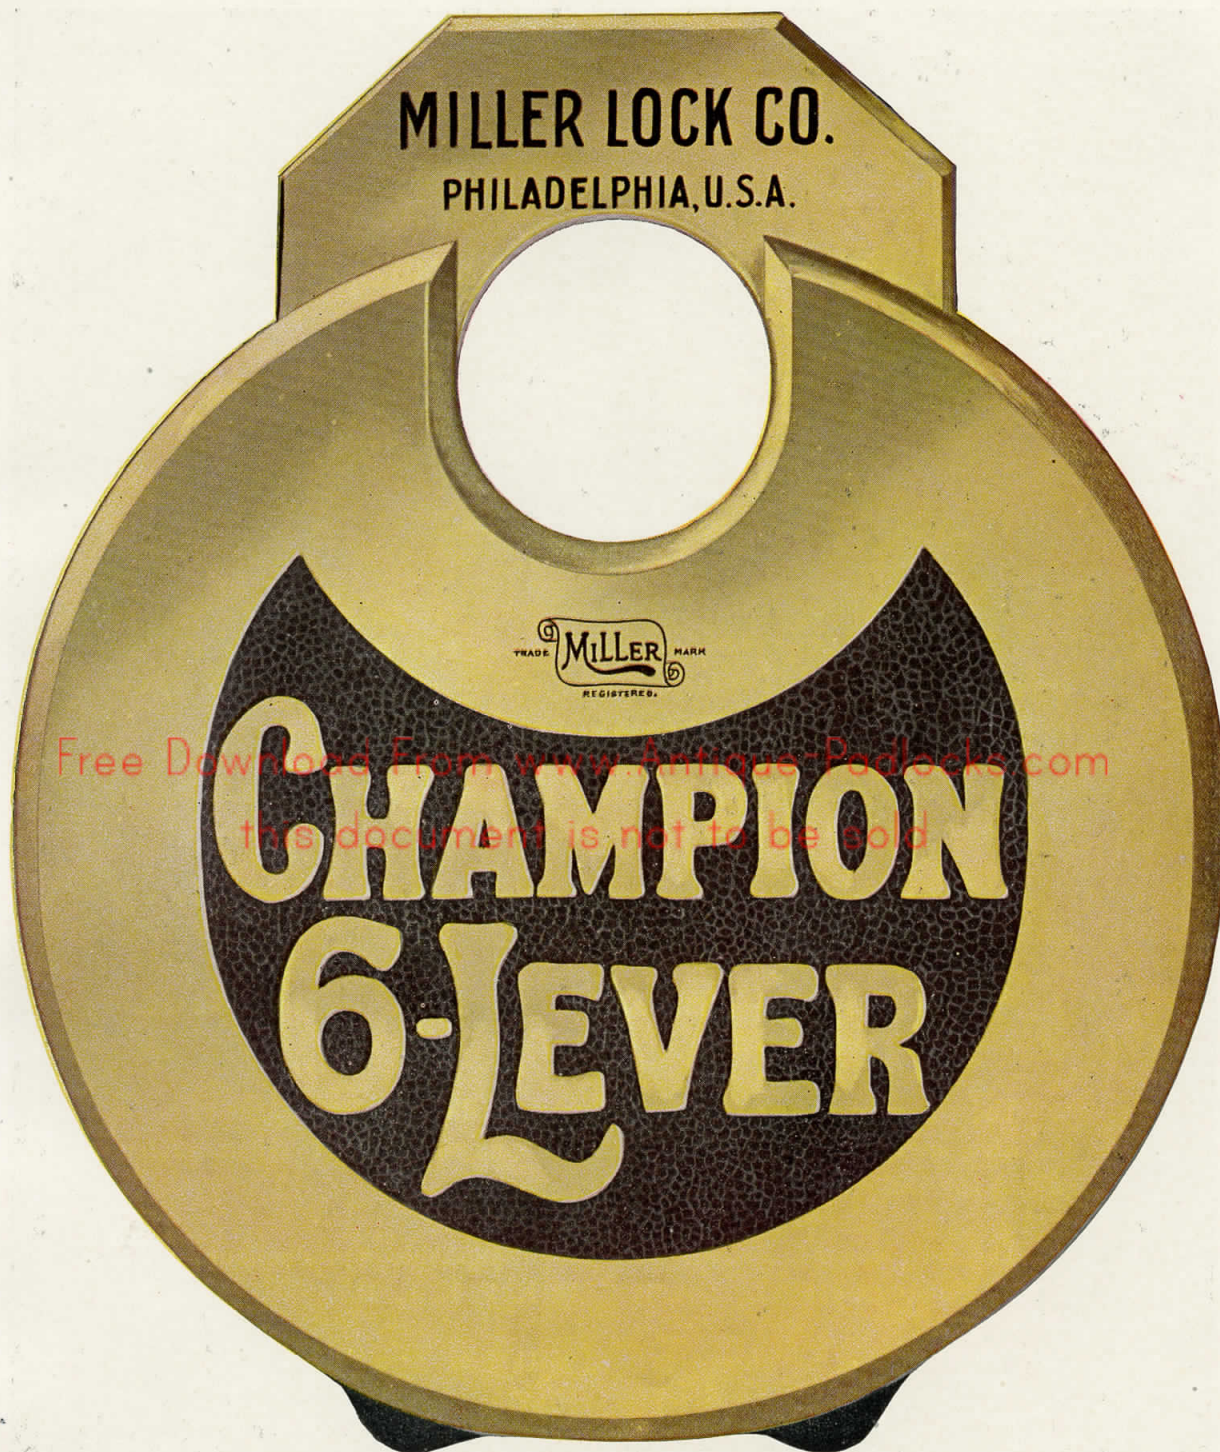

Padlocks thus mounted on cards are well presented, and therefore secure the best opportunity for sales.

The selection of the various assortments, illustrated on pages 77 to 93 inclusive, are designed to cover two purposes, namely: locks to sell at different prices, and locks to sell at one price.

The following assortments have the lithographic reproductions of the locks complete on each card: A, B, C, D, E, F, K, L, M.

The remaining assortments: P, R, S, U, I-30, Z-20, Z-21, PZ-13, have a solid color background.
